BANDITS KILL GUARD, GET $33,000 PAYROLL

OUTLAWS ESCAPE IN AN AUTOMOBILE

Guard, James Garmon, Dies Enroute to a Hospital — Shot In the Chest While Trying to Save Coin of the Realm

NEWS IS SPREAD QUICKLY

Loot Had Been Transferred From Train to Battery Traction Car — Near Concrete Bridge, Outside of Vintondale, Bandits Stop Car

Johnstown, October 11.—Four bandits today held up a $33,000 payroll car of the Ebensburg, Coal company at Ballano, and killed James Garmon, a guard, and escaped with the loot in a fast automobile.

Garmon, who is from Ebensburg, died enroute to the Coulter hospital. He was shot in the chest while trying to save the payroll, which was being taken from Ebensburg to Coulter.

The bandits are believed to be the same who held up the Bakerstown National bank a year ago. County authorities have spread the news over the district. The bandits' car was a speedster model painted maroon.

The guards Garmon and Joe Davis, had taken the iron box containing the money to Rexis, near Vintondale, by train, and transferred it to the battery traction car there. Near the concrete bridge, just outside of Vintondale, the bandits armed with pistols stopped the car and boarded it.

Monessen Police Raid An Alleged Gambling Place; Morgan Avenue

Late Thursday night Monessen police raided an alleged gambling place in Morgan avenue, that city, operated by Andy Francis, and arrested the proprietor and six visitors, who they claim were "sitting" in the game.

Only one of the men appeared for the hearing yesterday morning, and in addition to the forfeit which he left for the hearing, was compelled to pay the costs of the case. The others posted forfeits of $10 each; their failing to appear means that the coin of the realm will accrue to the city treasury of Monessen. Those arrested gave the following names: John Danguilio, 1460 Schoonmaker avenue; Joe Price, 1220 Schoonmaker avenue; John Novus, Highland avenue; George Collis, 811 Schoonmaker avenue; Paul Oppolko, Schoonmaker avenue; Paul Harris, Morgan avenue; and Mike Malkovich, 1460 Schoonmaker avenue.

Federal engineers have decided to continue work at Locks Nos. 7 and 8, on the Allegheny river, during the winter and spring seasons. The installation of lock gates, construction of power house, placing of machinery and the possible construction of abutments is on the program, while the construction of the dam will be done during the low water season next year. The power houses on both dams will be located at the lower end of the land wall and will be equipped with three independent water wheels. The lock, also will be provided with duplicate filling and emptying valves, and further repairs will be made without interference to through navigation.

ENGINEERS ARE ON P. P. O. O. ROUTE

A crew of 40 men are at work on the stretch of state highway designated as Route 111 between Sunnyside and West Newton, which is a part of the Pike's Peak Ocean to Ocean highway, making a survey of the road up Daggs Hollow westward as far as West Newton. The preliminary survey for the entire stretch between these two points has been completed by the highway engineers and at present the corps is mapping every mile of the road as directed by J. V. Herber of Pittsburgh, district engineer of Pennsylvania state highways in the three surrounding counties.

At present the national highway is routed through Donora but it is probable, if the first reports are accurate, that the original route will be followed from Monongahela to West Newton over the much discussed route through Daggs Hollow. From West Newton this route goes to Mr. P. assistant and through Somerset county.

WEST VIRGINIA SAID TO BE IN REPUBLICAN COLUMN

J. D. Geronninger, a traveling man, of West Virginia, was among the visitors at the Republican headquarters on the second floor of the Bank of Charleroi and Trust Company building yesterday. He said that Coolidge and Dawes will carry West Virginia, despite the fact that Davis hails from Clarksburg. He also named other states which he averred are safe in the Republican column; but he added, "don't forget to vote."

G. E. LOCKHART ANSWERS CALL

George E. Lockhart, aged 76 years, for a long period one of the most prominent figures in the Republican party in Washington county died last night at 7:45 o'clock at his summer home near Claysville.

Mr. Lockhart's last illness was of brief duration and his death will come as a shock to his many friends and acquaintances throughout the county. On last Sunday, he was able to attend church services. On Monday he became ill, suffering an attack of grip.

Having served as sheriff and then clerk to the county commissioners, few citizens of Washington county were more widely known than Mr. Lockhart. He was a man held in high esteem, was recognized as an unusually keen politician, and for many years was one of the active Republican leaders.

George E. Lockhart was born in Beaver county in 1848, a son of George K. and Margaret Ann Savage Lockhart. His father having died while he was young, he was reared by his grandfather, William Savage, on a farm near McDonald. His education was obtained in the public schools of that locality.

In 1864 Mr. Lockhart enlisted in Company A, 147th Pennsylvania volunteers, and participated in the fortunes of that famous regiment. He was with Sherman at Atlanta and on his celebrated march to the sea, his regiment being the first to enter Savannah. After being ordered to the front he contracted typhoid fever and was sent to a hospital at Nashville, Tenn. On his recovery he returned to his regiment and served to the close of the war.

In 1885 Mr. Lockhart was appointed deputy sheriff under Sheriff James Hemphill, serving to the close of the term and then in 1888 was elected sheriff on the Republican ticket for a three-year term. On January 4, 1897, he was named chief clerk to the Washington county board of commissioners and served in that capacity until January, 1906.

After retiring from office Mr. Lockhart had divided his time between his farm on the National pike, east of Claysville, and his residence in Washington, spending the winters in the town and the summers in the country.

There survive, besides his wife, a brother, William A. Lockhart, of Houston.

FAMOUS AUTHOR AT POINT OF DEATH

Neruda Youth Is Held On Three Charges

Steve Neruda, aged 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Neruda who live in Carroll township, was given a hearing last night before Alderman E. L. Elwood of Monongahela and, after pleading guilty, was held on three counts for court. Bail or two charges of forcible entry was fixed at $30 for each offense, and $500 for pointing firearms with intent to kill.

The boy, who admits he is as "bad as he's painted," said he did not want to be released under bond. He is held for breaking into the Alexander schoolhouse on two occasions, when large quantities of school supplies were stolen. The other charge was preferred by Constable Gibson, who went to the Neruda home and was held at bay by the youth, after entering the house, young Neruda using as a persuader, a loaded shotgun. Finding that pleading was of no avail, Constable Gibson took a dangerous chance. Drawing revolver, he fired two shots, one into the floor and the other at the gun, which splintered the stock. Neruda then surrendered.

ACCIDENTS FREQUENT ON WEBSTER ROAD

So frequent have become accidents on the Webster-Monessen road that Constable Mochnally, of Roslertown, declares he can hardly get a good night's rest. Almost daily somebody hits somebody else. It is powerless without a warrant, unless the driver is criminally liable, has been drinking or in some other way violates the law. However, people all him whenever anything of the kind happens.

Monday night it was reported that a driver from Donora, James Gray, 626 Thompson avenue, according to the license number 235-644, in whose name the car is registered, hit the car of John McCallister, of 110 Fifth street, Monessen and did damage for which the latter had a warrant issued Tuesday morning through the office of Alderman White of Monessen. Settlement will likely result.

Local Republicans, Men And Ladies, Hear Senator F. B. Willis of Ohio Urge the Election of Coolidge And Dawes

ATTESTS TEMPLE'S RECORD

Eulogizes Congressman, And Averred It Would Be a National Calamity And a Disgrace to This District If He Were Not Returned to Washington

Charleroi Republicans, both ladies and gentlemen, helped swell the big crowd in attendance at the rally held last night in the borough of Donora, where United States Senator Frank B. Willis of Ohio in an eloquent, fervent and logical talk urged the election of Coolidge and Dawes and to make the victory complete, to see to it that a Republican congress will be on the job to assist the president in the pursuit of his policies.

The address, which was really the keynote of others which will take place in this section, probably one or more in Charleroi before election, was preceded to with close attention by Senator Willis' auditors. The assemblage contained probably as many ladies as men, thus evidencing that the fair sex are awake to the election of the Republican candidates and the carrying out of the policies and principles of the party of Lincoln, Grant, Garfield, McKinley, Roosevelt, Taft, and down to date, Coolidge. The Senator, who is a strong and effective speaker, devoted his opening remarks in eulogization of Dr. Henry W. Temple, and the good work which he has done for this district and nation as a congressman. He averred that it would be a national calamity and a disgrace to this district if he were not returned to Washington, where he has rendered such distinguished service to the party and the nation. He referred to the fact that Dr. Temple was one of 153 men in the lower house who stood loyally behind President Coolidge in the last session of congress and declared it would be futile to elect a Republican president without the backing of a congress of his own party. He also called attention to Congressman Temple's distinguished service as a member of a most important committee.

Taking up national issues, Senator Willis paid his respects to LaFollette and his movement and to those who are seeking to undermine the American constitution. Among other things he said about the presumable redoubtable Bob.

"If LaFollette were elected, constitutional guarantees would mean naught, only legislative decrees a Russian soviet would count. Such an Beginning tomorrow, with a musical program and sermons and talks by preachers and members of the laity, the Methodist Episcopal church of Belle Vernon will formally celebrate its ninetieth birthday anniversary. There will be a program every day of the week, and the fact that the church society, ninety years old, is of such importance, it was resolved by the present congregation to celebrate. This will also be Home Coming week, when the relatives and friends of the church members will gather and fraternize and recount many happy reminiscences of the past, church and secular.

Ninety years ago eight persons gathered at a home in Main street, Belle Vernon, and under the leadership of the Rev. J. H. Ebbetts, formed the nucleus of the present strong and progressive church society in our town across the river. The public is invited to meetings tomorrow.

GIANTS WENT DOWN WITH A DULL THUD

Washington Wins World's Title After Spectacular Twelve Inning Struggle

Just as the twilight shadows were crowding the last rays of the setting sun down behind the western hills yesterday the picturesque old city of Washington was swept by a great tidal wave of excitement which eclipsed anything ever before enacted on a baseball field. The remarkable outburst was precipitated by the sensational finish to the world series, when Earl McNeely sent a bounding single over third base and Muddy Ruel went tripping across the home plate with the run that won the big classic.

Fans from the historic capital and others who flocked to the scene of battle from points East, West, North and South, have been bordering on ever since Stanley Harris and his gallant squad bagged the American League pennant and thereby created a history in this beautiful political center. But when the climax came and wound up that nerve-racking ordeal, which had extended for the last time through a host of trials, the craziest bedbug in all creation, like a docile snail.

Before McNeely had scampered down and reached first base the spectators were beginning to spill themselves over the front rails of the stands and scramble pell-mell in the din of the center fielder whose bludgeon had chimed out that one base blast and made a new champion. Harris beat the crowd that surged toward McNeely and throwing his arms about him, hugged Earl tightly and even kissed him. The embrace had not been broken when the populace was on the scene and both heroes were borne upon the shoulders of their happy admirers. The noise made a rush upon the field, but even the strong-armed minions of the law were unable to cope with the unusual demonstration.

The thousands who had occupied the great stands of Griffith Stadium so quickly herded themselves in front of the home dugout that players and their relatives who had sought to be the first to deliver the congratulations were carried helpless.

Cuddy, DeMarco, In A Terrific Battle, With Tommy O'Brien, Loses

In a mad riot of gloves, Tommy O'Brien of Milwaukee won the referee's decision over Cuddy DeMarco before a howling mob at Waterbury, Conn., last night. The hall was a madhouse during the twelfth round with the fans standing on their chairs cheering as the two fighters stood toe to toe in the middle of the ring casting science to the winds and slugging.

O'Brien's cleaner hitting earned him the decision, although DeMarco came back in the last two rounds and staged a rousing rally. The Milwaukee battler staved off defeat and saved his colors by only the narrowest of margins. It was his second win.

A number of fans in the audience who thought a draw decision by Referee Jim Galvin would have been a fair award.

DeMarco was forced to spot O'Brien both height and reach and was handicapped sorely in boxing his opponent at long range. He was quick to see this in the early stages of the fight and closed in where he did his best work.

Alongside of O'Brien DeMarco looked like a bantamweight but Cuddy's plucky campaign against odds surprised the crowd in his favor. DeMarco lost his chance of getting a draw of perhaps earning the decision by loafing through the eighth, ninth and tenth rounds. The little fellow was seemingly worn down by O'Brien's steady rushing tactics and saved himself for the last two rounds. He went through these last two lances at a wicked pace but he was unable to keep O'Brien away and although he carried the eleventh session he could do no more than hold O'Brien even in the last round.

The fight opened very slow. Neither fighter did anything of any account in the first clincher but started to warm up in the second.

Bleacher Fan Thing of Past in Various Cities

These are slick stocking days in baseball. Not many years back the average fan would grab his hat, run for the street car and to the ball yard just in time to hear "play ball" and enjoy a rare afternoon with the other sun gods in the bleachers.

Now he steps into his automobile, more leisurely to a political hall plant, and purchases a seat in the grandstand. The bleachers are almost forgotten. This is true of cities where ever professional baseball flourishes, from New York to the Main-street towns of the Dakotas. The average American demands the best, and if he has the price is willing to pay for it.

This is true not only of baseball but of almost everything which the public supports from the movies to the roads. Once it was thought the height of extravagance to buy a pullman, in fact, most people thought it a fine treat to ride on the red days of the day coaches. Now a plush one is often lucky to get a parlor car chair, even when a train is running light. And so it goes through the whole run of travel, amusement and sports.

The System of Owing Money Makes For Mental Worry and Financial Loss

When you owe a merchant a sum of money beyond its due date, you impede that merchant in his business. Unless he is possessed of a large reserve, the more money owing to him—the more, very probably, he owes. Such a system does not make for better business or mental pleasure.

It isn't necessary to owe a merchant money. You believe that the business man is entitled to the money for merchandise he has supplied.

The Community Savings & Loan Co. offers you an easy sensible way in which to finance your obligations. All you need is a co-maker—the merchant you owe will probably be glad to do that for you—and without further red tape you can secure as much as $300.00.

Here's the way it works. Let us assume that you owe a merchant $95.00. The merchant endorses you for that amount. We pay the merchant the money (or you can do it). Your bill is paid; and then, in convenient sums, weekly or monthly, you pay us the $95.00, plus a small interest charge.

The result? Your credit is unharmed. The merchant does not have to worry—neither do you. Your obligation to him is paid—he has the money with which to do business, and the whole community is financially more sound.

We will mail you an interesting booklet if you write or phone us.

SCORES VOTERS FOR NEGLECT OF DUTY

American citizens who ignore the blood-bought privilege of the ballot by neglecting to vote were denounced by Senator Frank B. Willis, of Ohio, in an address before the Washington Kiwanis club yesterday noon.

Getting down to a concrete case he showed that in this county of Washington, at the election two years ago, out of a registration of 69,000 or-ly 19,000 voted, leaving 50,000 who took no interest in their citizenship duties. "We have got to vote," he declared, "or a dangerous minority will be in control of things. One big danger confronting the county just now is the attack on the constitution, and if this neglect of voting continues those who are advocating its overthrow will get away with it.

"I am a Kiwanian, and I know what the Kiwanis club stands for. It is for the constitution and for law enforcement. Let us be true to our citizenship and get out to vote. We don't want any rule here by a radical minority." Mr. Willis is an easy and effective speaker and was given hearty applause at the conclusion of his address.

Previous to coming to the Kiwanis meeting he spoke at a Monday Republican rally at the Tyler tube mill, where he discussed the issues of the campaign and urged Washington county to send Congressman Temple back to Washington to continue his loyal support of President Coolidge and his policies.

Russell, twins, son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Russell of 32 Washington avenue, reached their 18th birthday yesterday, and to celeappropriate gifts. The evening was concluded by the serving of a daily luncheon.

Members of the Merry Menders Club were tendered a Halloween surprise party at the home of Mrs.
Matthew Giordanengo of Meadow avenue Thursday evening. A delicious evening which all enjoyed was spent in music and dancing. A short business session was held at which time it was decided to hold a Theatre party next Thursday when all the ladies will journey to Pittsburgh and spend the day, attending one of the theatres in the evening. A delicious luncheon was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. William Palfrey.

With a very large attendance, the first meeting of the year and President's Day of the Athene club was very successful. A good attendance of both associate and regular members mittee. A social hour followed the program, during which time daily refreshments were served by Mrs.

Berryman. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. T. R. Eagle of Meadow avenue, October 24.

WILL DO AWAY WITH APPOINTMENT
OF "COLONELS"

Danville, Va., Oct. 11.—The good old avialer state of Virginia without its perennial crop of "stetson ed" Colonels may not appeal to the romantically inclined, "but it would be a heap easier on the public pocketbook," declared American Legionnaires of the state in convention here when they passed a resolution to the effect that the time-honored custom of appointing approximately thirty "Colonels" of cavalry be done away with.

The Legionnaires pointed out that the majority of the Colonels appointed on Governors' staffs are entirely without military training or experience. They further object to the practice on the grounds that it too closely follows the custom of European courts where the ruler is surrounded by a large number of titled attendants. The chief complaint against the system, contend the Legionnaires, is that the bestowal of military rank or titles without previous military experience is demoralizing to our national defense forces where a man has to give an entire life's services to reach the rank of Colonel.
The Legionnaires voice a final objection, in the words of the resolution, "Because it is not respectful to the memory of those of our former comrades who made the supreme sacrifice for our country and of whom a large majority never rose above the grade of private."

Flowers of the Desert

Arizona deserts have their own flowers. To place the flowers in the growth large, the flowers when in bloom of marked beauty, the big yucca and the sotol, both members of the lily family, showing beautiful bloom on tall and stately stalks.

One of the interesting desert growths is the water cactus, so named because its great stalk, from five to ten feet high and as large in circumference as a barrel. It has a heavy pulpy covering from which it is possible to squeeze goodly amounts of water, and Indians and travelers are quick to turn to the cactus when water supplies are short, says the Detroit News.

LOOK OUT FOR A COLD WINTER, SAY
THE MARINERS

Washington, October 11.—Nautical men in North American waters are predicting a severe winter—one of the worst in years—and each day letters to the Coast Guard headquarters here reflect this sentiment in demands that the service be prepared.

The guard, aroused by this flood of predictions from the "old salts" has checked up with its many sub-stations and has found that the forecasts of its own personnel agrees with those of the civilian mariners.

A hard winter for the Coast Guard means a lot. There will be storms that buffet and separate the brave little sea-going fishing fleets. The guard must stand by prepared for any emergency. There will be huge icebergs floating down into the path of trans-oceanic travel which must be watched, charted and often broken up. The stormy winter air will bring radio calls of distress—broken propellers and rudders, lost small boats, disabled power equipment and the like.

The Coast Guard is preparing.
Ships which all year have been chasing rum runners are being overhauled and made ready for the annual call for regular winter shipping protection. Usually in November an executive order designates certain coast guard vessels which must patrol the coast during December, January and February, when the winter storms are at their height.

A survey of the regular Coast Guard vessels discloses that but two —the Modoc and the Tampa, both provided in the emergency of the World War—are really fitted for the demands of the roughest ocean patrol. They are now on duty off the Newfoundland banks, watching for icebergs.

Aside from the Modoc and the Tampa there are not more than seven other ships adequately fitted for the service which demands constant duty on the coast from Maine to the Rio Grande. And these, navigators say, are far from first-class vessels.

But what they lack in equipment, shipping men say, they make up in personnel. They are manned by fearless men, ready to brave any peril and encounter any hardship to aid those in distress.

Letters from executives of the many settlements that dot the Maine coast line recall another and rather unrom-antic job which the coast guard has shouldered in the past. Severe winter causes these hundreds of harbors to freeze over, cutting off small boat traffic and leaving the village without fuel and provisions as most of them have no overland transportation. The Coast Guard is looked upon to remedy this situation and generally does. Cutters are sent into the harbors to break the ice.

SUPERIOR HARD

COAL IS FOUND

Hazleton, Oct. 11.—Thousands of tons of the finest grade anthracite has been discovered in and around the abandoned Silver Brook region by the Haddock Mining Company, it was learned here.

The Silver Brook section was abandoned 30 years ago in the belief that all the coal had been mined out but recently borings made by Haddock people showed extensive origin deposits around this place and extensive veins running through there evidently from the Mahony valley to Lofty, Schuylkill county. The find is being developed and enough coal is believed to be there to afford the best mining for 20 years more.

Style Notes On Fall Coats

Suede-like

The smartest coat fabrics have a suede-like texture, almost leather like, but beautifully soft. Their luster is not brilliant, but very rich.

Ruddy Browns

The reddish, bronze tones characterize many of the handsomest coats, while other fashionable ones are shutter green.

The Vest Effect

The vest-coat, a garment suggesting coat and frock, is a whim Fashion shyly introduces.

Tunics, Too

Many new wraps bear suggestions of the tunic, with slim bands of fur encircling them below the knee-line.

Fur-Trimmed Wraps Brightly Colored

Come to enliven autumn days and color snowy scenes are fur-trimmed Wraps, in such shades as copper, burgundy, mahogany and evergreen. A sleeve that is pulled from elbow to wrist, a godet of fur in the skirt, a banding of fur at the closing—these are new notes that will win you to them. Excellent values you will say. Choose your winter Wrap now.

$39.50 to $175.00

New Topcoats With a Youthful Swing

The Topcoat of this season is so much more than a Topcoat, so nearly akin to the smart dress wrap that every woman will be anxious to enlist one in her fall and winter wardrobe. Straightline Coats with long revers and devoid of fastenings are singularly becoming to young girls who will draw them up nonchalantly about them. Straightline Coats merrily plaided suggest outdoor playtimes, and slim Coats in warm shades are often made more entrancing with trimmings of spotted fur. Very unusual values.

$16.95

Cloth Coats in New Silhouette

There is a new silhouette in the Cloth Coat group, a silhouette so interesting that it makes up for any lack of trimming. A wrappy upper section and very slim skirt make fall's favorite Cloth Coat resemble the wraps of past popularity. You will find this Coat becoming; and delightful in colors, reminding you of amber, emerald and their variations.
